

Booking Procedure & Policies

When calling for catering services, please have the following information available:

- Event Day/Date
- Event Start & End Time
- Event Building & Room Location
- Department Billing Information
- Event Contact Name, Phone & Fax Number, Email information
- Title of event
- Service Style (buffet, reception etc)
- Estimated Guest Count
- Preferred Payment Method (RIAS, Student Voucher, Check, Visa or Master Card)
- Reservation number if your location is the first floor of Winant's Hall

You will receive a contract, confirmation letter or proposal outlining the information provided

Please review all contract/proposal details and contact your catering associate if there are any discrepancies.

When you feel all the details outlined are correct, please sign the contract and fax to the appropriate catering office.

Cook Douglass Catering—732-932-1212

Brower Catering— 732-932-1206

Contract Changes

To avoid late fees, additions, deletions or other changes must be made at least three (3) business days prior to the event date. Changes other than cancellations, cannot be guaranteed without the proper notice.

Non University Customers are required to provide a deposit of $1000 to secure catering services with the final payment required (7) business days prior to event execution. All monies are fully refundable within 10 days of the event, after which time you will be assessed service fee and responsibility for any cost of goods/services incurred up to that point.

Payment will be accepted through the following methods:

- > Master Card/Visa
- > Personal Check – seven business days prior to the event
- > Bank Check or Money Order

Hours of Operation

Our delivery schedule is 7:00 am – 7:00 pm seven days a week.

Events that require delivery before or after these hours are subject to appropriate surcharges.

During winter and spring recess and summer break, our hours of operation are Monday through Friday 7:00 am – 7:00 pm.

If you require service on the weekend minimums will apply. Contact your catering representative for details

Cancellation Policy

When cancellations are made (3) business days before the scheduled event, the customer will be charged the cost of goods and/or services incurred by Rutgers University Catering. When cancellations are made less than two (2) business days prior to the scheduled event, the customer may be charged the full price of the goods and/or services contracted.

University Emergency Closing

In the event the university closes due to inclement weather or emergency the client will only be responsible for outside services purchased on their behalf by Rutgers University Catering

Excess Food

Rutgers, The State University prohibits catering clients from taking excess food items from any event .

Items purchased for customer pickups or self-service events (bulk or trays purchased) are the property of the customer. Any leftover items may not be returned to Rutgers University Catering for credit.

Alcoholic Beverage Policy

Alcoholic beverages can be provided by Rutgers University Catering for all events. The cost incurred from the vendor will appear on your catering contract. All alcoholic beverages become the property of the client at the completion of the event and must be removed from the event site at that time. Rutgers University Catering will not store beverages. If a client fails to remove beverages at the end of an event catering will dispose of the items. No refunds will be permitted.

Additional Services

Rutgers University Catering is dedicated to making your event planning a stress free experience. Flower arrangements, ice carvings, specialty linens, valet parking services, rental equipment and decorations are available and priced accordingly. Please speak with your Event Coordinator for selections and pricing.

Guidelines

- › All catering deliveries require a $50. minimum
- › Full payment is required prior to event execution
- › Room charges may apply when booking dining service venues. Contact your catering representative for more information.